Hannes Raffaseder is Chief Executive Officer / President of the St. Pölten University of Applied Sciences as well as co-initiator and lead coordinator of E³UDRES², the Engaged and Entrepreneurial European University as Driver for European Smart and Sustainable Regions. In June 2023 he was elected as president of EURASHE. He was founding director of the Institute for Creative\Media/Technologies and academic director of a masters course in digital media technology. As a professor of media technology and audio design, Hannes has many years of teaching experience and led several research and innovation projects. He promotes a multidirectional knowledge exchange with industries and society as third and fourth mission of higher education institutions and co-implements concepts for engaged and entrepreneurial universities that strengthen their role as platforms for collaborative innovation. In addition to his academic work, Hannes is an internationally active, award-winning composer and media artist whose music has been performed in renowned concert halls and arts festivals.
